It was the first sale this financial year that numbers were under 10,000, back by over half last week's yarding. It was a mixed quality yarding with very few full fleeced lambs offered. All the regular domestic and export processors were in attendance and operating in a stronger market that lifted $6/head in places.

Light weight lambs weighing 12-18kg lifted $3, going to the processors from $104 to $120/head. The quality of the light and medium weight trade lambs was good and saw a price increase of $6, receiving from $135 to $151/head. The bidding intensified in the heavy trade category, with a lift of $3, receiving from $148 to $166/head.

Heavy lambs to the exporters sold from $168 to $180, lifting $3/head. There were few extra heavy export lambs today, with prices remaining firm, making from $174 and averaging $195/head. Carcase prices averaged from 633c to 661c/kg cwt. Restocker lambs were well supplied, with the better types receiving from $64 to $135/head. An excellent pen of heavy Merino hoggets sold for $148/head.

Overall, it was a mixed quality yarding of mutton going to a variable market. Medium weight 2 and 3 score ewes sold from $75 to $100/head. The best of the Merino 4 score ewes made to $145 and heavy cross bred ewes sold from $105 to $122/head.
