Important Notice

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions. You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

Before you extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You do not need to tell us anything that:

- ◆ Reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- ◆ Is common knowledge; or
- ◆ We know or should know as an insurer; or
- ◆ We waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Your claim may be denied if, without prior approval from the insurer, you make any agreement whereby you accept the transfer of liability (hold harmless) from another party. This may prevent the insurer from recovering their loss from a third party. We draw your attention to your Managing Agency Agreement as this may include a 'hold harmless' clause. Please refer to your local Terri Scheer Office if you have any concerns.
