Numbers were reduced to 470 cattle for the last sale of the year. Down 630 head. It was another plain yarding, however there were some prime supplementary fed cattle suitable for the local trade. It was a full field of buyers with a couple of wextra restocker orders present. Trade cattle to local butcher orders trying to fill requirements for the Christmas break sold 30-40 c/kg dearer for the selected few. Light weight feeder steers sold fully firm. While heavy weight feeder steers gained 20 c/kg. Similar for the feeder heifers. Lightweight firm, heavy weights slightly dearer. To few heavy weight export steers/ heifers to quote. Cows fell a further 10-15 c/kg on average however the top individual price was similar to last week. Restocking cows fell 10-20 c/kg. Bulls fell 20-30 c/kg. The sale was the last for 2019. The first sale for the new year will be on 8th January 2020. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
