220 Cattle yarded this week in Mudgee up by 30 head. Overall it was a better quality yarding. Best trade cattle sold well however they did not reach the very good prices from last sale. Selling to a top of 315 cents. Some handy pens of well bred feeder steers were yarded. Buyers competed strongly to push prices from firm to 5 cents dearer quality a contributing factor. Less yearling heifers penned this week no real price difference. The handfull of export steers/heifers sold to 290.2 cents a gain of 10 cents. Cows saw no change & topped at 234.2 cents. Bulls were up 4 to 5 cents. Restocker cattle met better competition to sell 5 to 10 cents dearer.
