405 cattle yarded this sale, down by 225 head. Quality and condition was again mixed. There were sufficient numbers of prime local trade cattle, either off crop or supplementary fed. Good competition from the local trade buyers saw prices fully firm to slightly dearer, especially for the heifer portion. Best steers reached 310cents, heifers topped at 30cents and a single heavy steer going to the local trade made 272 cents. The biggest percentage of the yarding was made up of yearlings, showing the effects of the dry season. Most were on the light side with, no real change with the steer portion going to feedlot orders between 210 and 250 cents, while the heifer portion between 180-210 cents. Only an odd heavy steer or export heifer penned. Not the numbers of cows this sale. Best heavy prime condition D4 cows sold firm to a couple of cents easier, mostly due to an absent buyer, topping at 208 cents. Clean cows with sufficient fat cover but not over done met the best competition and sold 5-8 cents dearer. Plain cows similar. A bigger offering of heavy bulls were generally firm.
