Slightly larger yarding of 220 cattle up 40 head. Most grades were represented & all regular buying orders were present and competing in a fully firm to dearer market. Prine young calltl sold firm to 5 cents dearer, topping at 426 cents. The heifer portion to slaughter sold to 416 cents. Feeder orders were again busy selling to fully firm rates to a high of 434 cents. While the heifer portion softened slightly selling to 370 cents- quality was not to the high standard of last sale. Cows weakened in price however they also were not to the quality of last week. Restockers were once again active trying to secure sufficient numbers. Light weight weaners sold over 600 cents while medium weight steers topped at 432.6 cents Bulls 10 cents better.
